Ord fra Presidenten

News Alert: “They’re sending VOL #6-166 a big bouquet of Kudos*!” Growing up, there was a big crossover country hit by the “Broadway Hillbilly”, Eddy Arnold, entitled “I’m sending you a big bouquet of Roses.” My “News Alert” is a paraphrase of that title using Kudos* instead of Roses, I have four Kudos in that Big Bouquet (Note: Fraternal, Foundation & Financial) as follows;

Kudo #1: Sons of Norway Fraternal to VOL #6-166 is named and saluted as one of 12 Lodges (out of 50) “Growing to 2020” Winners of the 2017 Recruitment Challenge (10% new members) for our outstanding member recruitment efforts for 2017. This special prize package achievement will be celebrated at our May 20th Heritage & Culture Day.

Kudo #2: Sons of Norway Foundation to VOL #6-166 (Mary Beth and Sharon Lewis). Approval and Grant Request check of $400 for the “Helping Hands to Children” request earlier this year to help Cobb Elementary School Student Council members visit the CA State Capitol in Sacramento.

Kudo #3: Sons of Norway Financial to VOL #6-166 (Insurance Benefit Members) Annual Sons of Norway Lodge Revenue Sharing Check ($65.95).

Kudo #4: VOL #6-166 to District Six. Our own Mary Beth Ingvaldstad, D6 President and 2018 D6 Convention Chair, and her D6 Board for their two year efforts in developing and hosting the upcoming D6 Convention (June 10-14) at the Graton Resort & Casino in Rohnert Park. They are all to be commended and like the Convention Theme, they are truly “Aged to Perfection”.

Kudo n. Acclaim or prestige resulting from notable achievement; glory; recognition; renown
Vennlig Hilsen, Carl Peter

Sunday, April 8—Tea Party & Quilts

Sharon Lewis chaired another GREAT Vikings Of Lake Heritage and Culture Day!

Wonderful teas and delicious bites!

Mary Beth Ingvaldstad shared all the pieces she and Carl have received, made by Sis-in-law — Sharon Ingvaldstad.

Ellen Aasen and her special family heirloom as well as Robin (welcome back) Marsolek and her Mom, Theresa Contos, sharing a 4-generation quilt.

That made me laugh so hard-

Tears ran down my leg.

Ole & Lena went to a lawyer to see about getting a divorce. “How old are you folks?” asked the lawyer. “Vell, I’m 96 and Lena is 92,” said Ole. How come you are getting a divorce now? Asked the lawyer. Said Ole: “Ve wanted to vait till all da kids vere dead.”

An old man lay awkwardly sprawled across three entire seats in the movie theatre. When the usher came by and noticed this, he whispered to the old man, “Sorry sir, but you’re only allowed one seat.” The old man didn’t budge. The usher became more impatient. “Sir, if you don’t get up from there I’m going to have to call the manager.” Once again, the old man just muttered and did nothing. The usher marched briskly back up the aisle and in a moment returned with the manager. Together the two of them tried repeatedly to move the old disheveled man but with no success. Finally, they summoned the police. The officer surveyed the situation briefly, then asked, “All right buddy, what’s your name?” “Ole,” the old man moaned. “Where are you from, Ole?” asked the police officer. With a terrible strain in his voice, and without moving, Ole replied; “The balcony.”

TUBFRIM
(TUBerculosis and FRIMerke/stamps)

The Tubfrim program has provided funds for years to aid disabled children in Norway. The program was established in 1928 in the Norwegian town of Nesbyen, originally raising money to aid in the eradication of tuberculosis among children in Norway.

You need to trim stamps, leaving a quarter inch around the edges so as not to damage perforations. Then bring them to the Lodge for Evelyn Robison to send on to our District Coordinator, Jon Arild.

Hurray, It's the 17th of May!

As the nation's most celebrated holiday, Syttende Mai honors the anniversary of the signing of the country's constitution in 1814. Over time the day and what it represents to the people of Norway has evolved greatly. Historically, May 17 stood as a day of politics involving speeches and rallies; today it is filled with national pride, festivities and tradition.

Each year, thousands of people in Norway— and around the world—take part in waving Norwegian flags, marching in city parades and professing their love of Norway. Many of today's festivities are centered on music, food, children and graduating high school students. The largest parade takes place in Oslo and consists of more than 75 schools and marching bands, and is even attended by the Royal Family.

For more facts about Syttende Mai and details on how the day is celebrated, check out the Sons of Norway blog at https://www.sofn.com/blog/2017/05/16/148/syttende_mai_10_fun_facts.

Also, while you're celebrating with family, friends or your lodge, remember to take lots of photographs. The Viking magazine's District Happenings Section is the perfect place to showcase your Norwegian celebrations. For information on how to take and submit photos for consideration in the Viking magazine District Happenings Section, check out the updated Viking Photo Guide found in the Member Resources section of the website: https://www.sofn.com/_asset/wj4q66/District-Pages-Photo-Guide.pdf.

Ready, Set, Go!

The 2018 Sons of Norway new member campaign is underway.

Recruiting members will be recognized with this exclusive pin. The beautiful design celebrates Norway's mountains and Northern Lights.
